

TIPS CONTRACT

CONTRACT NO. 240301

EFFECTIVE DATES: JUNE 1, 2024 TO MAY 31, 2029

A TIPS contract is a competitively bid agreement through The Interlocal Purchasing System (TIPS), a national purchasing cooperative that allows government, education, and non-profit organizations to access pre-vetted vendors for goods and services, saving time and money on the purchasing process.

WHO CAN USE TIPS CONTRACTS

EDUCATION:

K-12 school districts, charter schools, universities, and colleges.

GOVERNMENT:

Cities, counties, states, federal agencies, and other government entities.

NON-PROFIT:

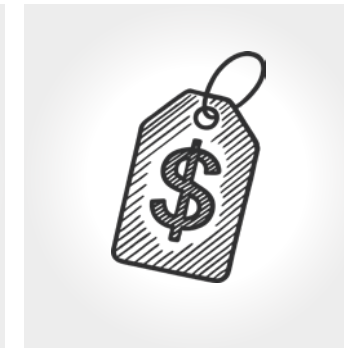

Hospitals, churches, charitable organizations, and member associations.

BENEFITS

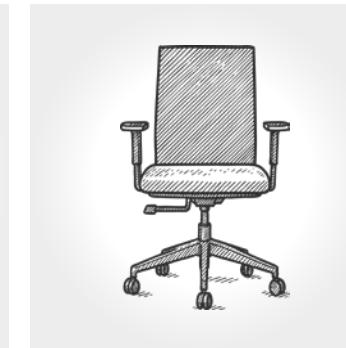

SPEED TO MARKET

Eliminates the need for individual organizations to create and manage their own lengthy bidding processes.

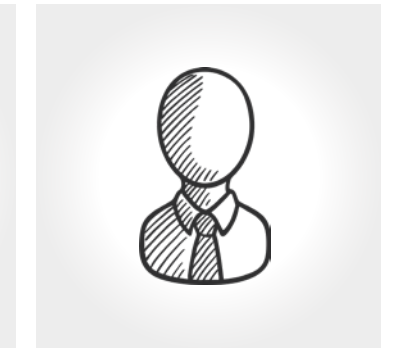

BUYING POWER

Members benefit from the collective buying power of the cooperative, leading to more economical pricing.

COMPLIANCE

TIPS ensures that contracts meet local and state procurement requirements.

VENDOR ACCESS

Members gain immediate access to high-quality, pre-vetted vendors with established legal requirements.
